Dearest Friends from St. Thomas More

Thank you so much for the memorable good bye reception on June 26th-27th. Many of you came to say good bye, shook hands, wrote cards and left very generous gifts. Your wishes, as well as your promises of prayer have touched by heart and I am still in awe of the outpouring of love and support you showed me. Please know that, thanks to your generosity, my worries about textbooks this year are over and so every time I am in the classroom, I will remember you all with deep gratitude. God bless you all.

JustFaith

"We are called to be compassionate as our God is compassionate." (Luke 6:36) What does the compassion of Christ look like in the modern world? How do I become a more compassionate person? The 30 week course reveals our call to care for our sisters and brothers in need through scripture, Catholic Social Teaching, and the riches of our tradition.
